

Bill Barton Trio back for Jazz on the Bremer

September 30th, 2008

Langhorne Creek is once again set to come to life in a celebration of fine wine, great food and cool jazz for 'Jazz on the Bremer'.

The Langhorne Creek Winemakers Association are busy putting the final touches on their annual 'Jazz on the Bremer' event, which is sure to be a delight for the senses. It will be a great opportunity to sample the quality produce Langhorne Creek and the Fleurieu Peninsula have to offer. This year the event will again be held at Frank Potts Reserve on Wellington Road, Langhorne Creek on Sunday, October 5.

Set on the banks of the Bremer River, among the tall gums of the Frank Potts Reserve, more than 15 Langhorne Creek wineries will be on site where you can purchase wine by the glass or bottle. Langhorne Creek insignia glasses will also be available for purchase. The event is fully catered with Argus House of Strathalbyn and All Fired Up Wood Oven Pizzas, together with a range of Fleurieu Peninsula food producers supplying food.

With the grounds of the reserve dotted with tables and chairs, and marquees holding a multitude of fine wine and food, come and enjoy a relaxing day out with the renowned Bill Parton Trio and the fabulous Club Schmaltz.

After a successful debut at Jazz on the Bremer last year, the Bill Parton Trio is back to inject their smooth tunes into the day. The Bill Parton Trio is a soul, r&b and funky lounge groove musical outfit built upon a very firm mainstream jazz roots. They perform both original material and covers, where the overall product is of a very fresh, cool, smooth and contemporary nature.

Keeping the music flowing will be Adelaide outfit Club Schmaltz. Established five years ago when, Club Schmaltz has become one of the state's elite, first-choice bands. At the heart of Club Schmaltz are five musicians who have honed their skills over many years at the top of the local music scene. Starting at 11am, wine, food and entertainment will be on offer all day. Children are welcome. An array of tables and chairs will be available but to be on the safe side bring a chair or picnic rug.

Entry is $10 for adults and children under 18 will be granted free entry. There is no BYO permitted and please leave your pets at home.

Less than an hour's drive from Adelaide come and indulge the senses and spend a lazy Sunday afternoon in a picturesque setting, surrounded by vineyards and overlooking the Bremer River at Langhorne Creek.
